- (b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasize the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

Policies:

The Board of Directors and Management of CEU committed themselves to the principles and best practices contained in its Revised Manual on Corporate Governance and acknowledged that the Revised Manual serves as their guide to the attainment of their corporate goals.

The Shareholders, Board of Directors and Senior Management believe that corporate governance is a necessary component of what constitutes sound strategic business management and will therefore undertake every effort necessary to create awareness and ensure compliance to corporate governance policies and practices within the organization. The Board also believes that complete, adequate and timely material information should be given to the public.

The Board shall respect the rights of the stockholders are provided for in the Corporation Codes, namely:

- i. Right to vote on all matters that require their consent and approval;
- ii. Pre-emptive right to all stock issuances of the corporation;
- iii. Right to inspect corporate books and records
- iv. Right to information
- v. Right to dividends; and
- vi. Appraisal right

The Board has likewise adopted the corporate governance policy to protect the rights of minority stakeholders under the Revised Code of Corporate Governance:

- A director shall not be removed without

The Company's Board of Directors has adopted the principle of "one share, one vote" policy to ensure that all shareholders are treated equally with respect to voting rights, subscription rights and transfer rights. By having 2 independent directors elected during the annual stockholders' meeting the Board of Directors has established effective shareholder voting mechanisms such as "majority of minority" to protect minority shareholders against actions of controlling shareholders. The Company provides all shareholders with the notice and agenda of the annual general meeting (AGM) at least 15 business days prior to the meeting so as to allow shareholders to call a special shareholders' meeting and submit a proposal for consideration at the AGM or the special meeting. During the annual shareholders' meeting, the Board ensures the attendance of the external auditor and other relevant individuals to answer shareholder questions in such meetings.

(c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission?

The Board of Directors of Centro Escolar University reviews and approved the vision and mission of the University annually during the annual organizational meeting of the University.

- 3) Explain how the board of directors plan for the succession of the CEO/Managing Director/President and the top key management positions?

The President/CEO and other top management positions are elected by the Board during the Organizational meeting after the stockholders' meeting. Since the President/CEO and other top management officials are part of the Board, they are exposed and familiar with the policies set by the Board for implementation. The Board, particularly the Independent Directors who are also members of the Audit Committee observe and assess their performance closely. This also prepare others for any top management position in case of vacancy.

- 4) Other Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors

Does the company have a policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board? Please explain.

Yes, experience and background are considered in the choice of members of the Board. One of the Independent Director is a former Chairman of CHED, and Former Secretary of DENR. One executive director is a former Chancellor of the UP Open University and Commissioner of CHED and the other executive director is former President of Mindanao State University. Other Directors are successful businessmen and professionals.

Does it ensure that at least one non-executive director has an experience in the sector or industry the company belongs to? Please explain.

Yes, one of the Independent director is a Former President of the University of the Philippines.

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

	Executive	Non-Executive	Independent Director

Accountabilities	Responsible for the day-to-day operation of the organization, including managing committees and staff and developing business plans in collaboration with the board for the future of the organization	Not involved in the day-to-day running of business. Monitors the executive activity and contributes to the development of business strategies.	Evaluate management performance and making sure that financial information provided to shareholders is accurate and complete independent directors should also ensure that a robust risk-management system is in place.
Deliverables	Accountable to the Chairman of the Board and reports to the board on a regular basis. The board may offer suggestions and ideas about how to improve the company, but the Executive Director decides whether or not, and how, to implement these ideas.	Non-executive directors should satisfy themselves that financial information is accurate and that financial controls and systems of risk management are robust and defensible. Non-executive directors are responsible for determining appropriate levels of remuneration of executive directors and have a prime role in appointing senior management and in succession planning.	There must be at least one independent director in Nominations, Audit and Remuneration Committee. The Independent director shall perform its duties in accordance with the respective committee charters.

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

Independence for the Company is an essential part of professionalism and professional behavior. It refers to the avoidance of being unduly influenced by a vested interest and to being free from any constraints that would prevent a correct course of action being taken. It is an ability to 'stand apart' from inappropriate influences to be able to make the correct and uncontaminated decision.

Centro Escolar University in its continuous commitment to the information needs of our people and our democratic institutions maintains its independence by being a vehicle of fidelity and impartiality, while upholding its dedication of bringing good news to the public.

Does the company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent directors? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain.

The company in compliance with SEC Memorandum Circular No 9 series of 2011, have a term limit for independent directors of five (5) consecutive years. After completion of the five (5) year service period, an independent director shall be ineligible for election as such in the company until he has undergone a "cooling off" period of two (2) years. An independent director re-elected after the "cooling off" period can serve for another five (5) consecutive years, provided that, after serving as independent director for ten (10) years, the independent director shall no longer be considered.
